

Colourful Dream of Rangeen Mohanti came true

Smt. Rangeen Mohanti an educated unemployed woman entrepreneur of Ranapur block of Nayagarh district once deamt to be a successful entrepreneur and to establish a commercial agri venture. With much hope, she visited APICOL for guidance. The experts of APICOL advised her to go for a Commercial Broiler Farming in her land. Smt. Mohanti visited the webportal agribusiness.nic.in and obtained the Go-ahead letter from Chief District Veterinary Officer, Nayagarh for a commercial broiler unit of 25000 capacity with a project cost of Rs. 99.00 lakhs. IDBI bank Ltd. extended a helping hand by sanctioning a Term Loan Rs. 56.88 lakhs in favour of the unit. She established the broiler unit repaying loans regularly. Availed capital investment subsidy of Rs. 30,76,138/- from APICOL and she is quite happy as all dreams have come into reality.

Smt. Mohanti has drawn inspiration from her entrepreneur husband Mr.Swaraj Kumar Mohanti. Mr Swaraj has become successful for establishment of an integrated model of commercial agri enterprise with dairy farming, horticulture, goatery and broiler. Both husband and wife have been working in tandem and have been a role model for many budding entrepreneur of the state.